Sending print out with Harold. I have a meeting starting at 2, so getting to this to you now, before I really did a full review but I think it more or less fits the bill. I have double spaced it for your ease of review. There is a character limit and this should all be okay, depending on the limit of each box. Their directive says the limit is between 1,500-3,000 characters, so some of these might need to be edited shorter (I don't know which box has which limit until I go in there.)
